Bayne-Burns.

Homer Bayne and Miss Dora Burn-, both of Jasper, were married at the home of the bride's parents last evening at eight o'clock. Rev. L. M. Scroggs, until recently pastor of the local Presbyterian church, of which the bride is a member, performed the ceremony, in the presence of a few relatives of the high contracting parties, both of whom are among Jasper's best known and most populas young people, and representatives of our most highly respected families.

The Burns home we would mely decorated in pink and water ' a twocourse luncheon was served after the ceremony. Mr. Bayne is the son of the late Wm. Bayne and is the owner of the prosperous hardware business built up by his father and bimself in this city. His bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Burns and is a most charming and accomplished young lady. The newly-weds are receiving the congrations of a host of wellwishers today, They will make their home for the

Depot Was Rurgarland

Unknown parties forced an entrance to the baggage room at the depot last Thursday night and appropriated four packages that were awaiting delivery to their owners next day. Two of the packages contained clothing, one was a pair of shoes; the contents of the fourth we did not learn. The combined value of the missing stuff is perhaps thirty of thirty five dollars.

One of the packages was found, minus its contents, in a box car near the depot next morning.

Some suspicious looking parties were banging around the station Thursday evening, and it is supposed they were

The thieves opened one package that they didn't molest, perhaps for one reason, perhaps for another. The package contained a large Bible.

Garden seed at Wheat & Bishou's.

Springtime and paint time mean the samething now-a-days, so, as springtime is here, paint time is with us again. True economy teaches the unsparing use of high grade paint, for since lumber is almost unpurchasable it doesn't pay to let your buildings or fences go to decay for want of a coat of paint. Besides, there's the "looks" to consider. Stand aff and look at your neighbor's house finished up with a fresh coat of Sewall's paint, and ask yourself if you can afford to let your house go this spring. We'll sell you-
